

President's Report ----- November 8, 2016

- ❖ I continue to meet regularly with a group of local industry and government leaders to look at ways to grow our area's skilled workforce. I represent both the College and the Cleveland County Economic Development Partnership, which I chair this year.
- ❖ The next NCACCT trustees' training/orientation session is March 29-31, 2017, Raleigh. There will be training sessions for newly appointed trustees, re-appointed trustees, and continuing education sessions for all trustees.
- ❖ The Fall meeting of the Board of Visitors was October 18. The program was about the Small Business Center and its work to stimulate entrepreneurship. The next Board of Visitors meeting is March 21, 2017.
- ❖ Students' Fall Break was October 3-6.
- ❖ The first Faculty/Staff Convocation of the year was September 28.
- ❖ To assist employees and students with being healthy, a flu shot clinic was held on October 19 from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
- ❖ The emergency siren was tested on October 6. The siren is part of the cccAlert system to tell students, employees, and visitors to go inside a building and secure themselves. The College will be changing vendors for cccAlert. The new product is app-based and will offer new features such as a panic button. Watch for more information on the new, improved cccAlert. Everyone will need to re-subscribe to cccAlert.
- ❖ Travel update:
 - October 24-27, Madisonville, KY, Chair SACSCOC Reaffirmation Committee to Madisonville Community College (travel paid by SACSCOC)

Future Dates to Remember:

- ❖ Thanksgiving Break, no classes, November 24-26. Official holidays 24-25.
- ❖ Faculty/Staff Christmas Party, Noon, Friday, December 9.
- ❖ Fall classes end December 19.
- ❖ Christmas holidays, College closed, December 26-30.
- ❖ New Year's Day holiday, College closed, January 2, 2017.
- ❖ Spring classes begin, January 9, 2017.
- ❖ Next Board of Trustees meeting, January 10, 2017.