DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) Classified Students Using the NC Employer Sponsored Waiver

The General Assembly has enacted laws applicable only to community colleges that create exceptions to the general requirements for in-state tuition. See N.C.G.S § 115D-39. In response to questions regarding whether the community college tuition exceptions noted in N.C.G.S § 115D-39 apply to students with DACA classification, legal counsel for the NC Community College System has provided the following information:

NC Employer Sponsor Exception

Pursuant to N.C.G.S § 115D-39(a), "when an employer other than the Armed Forces . . . pays tuition for an employee to attend [a community college] and . . . the employee works at a North Carolina business location, the employer shall be charged the in-state tuition rate." If a student is employed at a North Carolina business location and the employer of the student working at the North Carolina business location wants to pay for the student to attend a community college, the employer shall be charged the in-state tuition rate.
