2016–2017 Financial Aid

Household Size/Number in College Form

The Federal government requires colleges to collect information to verify what has been reported on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Federal financial aid cannot be awarded until the College receives and reviews this information. Complete all of the information on this form.

Student Information

Family Information and Household Size

If you are an independent student who was not required to provide parental information on the FAFSA:
- List yourself and your spouse, if you have one, below.
- List your children if they will receive more than half of their support from you from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017.

If you are a dependent student who was required to supply parental information on the FAFSA:
- List yourself.
- List your parent(s), even if you don’t live with them. If your parents are divorced or separated, only list the parent and step-parent (if applicable) which you provided on your FAFSA application.
- List your parents’ other children if (a) they will receive more than half of their support from your parents from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017; or (b) if they would be required to provide parent information if they were completing a FAFSA.
